

CESO Partners with the Bitove Family Foundation and Macedonia2025

Launch of Bitove Family Entrepreneurship Program in Macedonia

TORONTO, April 17, 2018 – CESO is pleased to announce the launch of a new partnership with the Bitove Family Foundation and Macedonia2025 called the Bitove Family Entrepreneurship Program. The program will work with Macedonian small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) in fields such as finance, tourism and hospitality, information technology, agribusiness and natural resource management.

The program will focus on providing skills development, training, coaching, mentoring, business tools, processes and systems to SMEs.

“Our program seeks to recruit Macedonian companies who have specific needs and then to match the abilities of the Canadian senior experts”, says Lou Naumovski member of Macedonia2025 Experts Council and member of the Bitove Family Foundation.

“With over 50 years of global experience developing SMEs, CESO’s partnership with the Bitove Entrepreneurship Program and Macedonia 2025 will be a wonderful opportunity to support businesses in a meaningful, sustainable and tangible way in Macedonia”, says Wendy Harris, president and CEO of CESO.

Macedonian micro, small and medium companies, working in the field of finance, tourism and hospitality, information technology, agri-business and natural resource management are welcome to apply.

About CESO (Canadian Executive Service Organization)

CESO is a Canadian international economic development organization dedicated to creating sustainable change and inclusive growth through the development of economic infrastructure. As a volunteer-sending organization, CESO’s model of partnering Canadian business and government leaders and highly-experienced professionals as volunteers with communities or organizations around the world continues to prove an effective means to create lasting economic and social change. For more information about CESO, visit www.ceso-saco.com.

Media Contact:

Karin Seybold

Communications Manager

kseybold@ceso-saco.com

647.478.4117