

Virtual Assignments with CESO

What Are Virtual Assignments?

CESO strengthens our partners' capacity through locally driven assignments delivered by CESO Advisors that provide training, mentoring and business and technical support. These advisory services may be delivered in country or remotely using the phone or the Internet, in what are known as virtual assignments.

How Do Virtual Assignments Work?

With an Internet connection and the proper tools, partners can connect with CESO Advisors who have experience working internationally and/or in Indigenous communities. Through virtual workshops and e-mentoring, CESO Advisors offer customized support to help partners build capacity and meet their goals. Virtual mentorship placements occur over a one to two month period.

CESO Advisors

CESO Advisors are highly-skilled professionals who advise, mentor and share strategic and technical expertise with partners and clients through a planned sequence of short-term, strategic assignments. They are Canadian citizens who represent a wide range of industries and professional skill sets.
